

HIPAA: Notice of Privacy Practices

This Notice Describes How Medical Information About You May Be Used And Disclosed
And How You Can Get Access To This Information.

Please Review It Carefully.

Changes On This Notice Will Not Be Honored.

J. David Spivey, M.D. | Robert R. Malamis, M.D. | John E. Perry, M.D.
1800 Howell Mill Road, Suite 175, Atlanta, GA 30318
Tel: 404-607-1777 | Fax: 404-607-1799

We understand that information about you and your health is very personal and therefore, we will strive to protect your privacy as required by law. We will only use and disclose your personal health information as allowed by applicable law.

We are committed to excellence in the provision of state-of-the-art health care services through the practice of patient care, education, and research. Therefore, as described below, your health information will be used to provide you care and may be used to educate health care professionals and for research. We train our staff to be sensitive about privacy and to respect the confidentiality of your personal health information.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of our patients' personal health information and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your personal health information. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices so long as it remains in effect. We reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices as necessary and to make the new Notice of Privacy Practices effective for all personal health information maintained by us. You may receive a copy of any revised notices at any time in person through our office, or a copy may be obtained by mailing a request to the Practice Administrator, Internal Medicine Specialists of Atlanta, P.C., 1800 Howell Mill Rd., Suite 175, Atlanta, GA 30318.

The terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices apply to the following entities owned and operated by and/or affiliated with the Internal Medicine Specialists of Atlanta, P.C. and the physicians, licensed professionals, employees, and trainees seeing and treating patients at our office.

USE AND DISCLOSURES OF YOUR PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION

The following categories detail the various ways in which we may use or disclose your personal health information. For each category of use or disclosures, we will give you illustrative examples. It should be noted that while not every use or disclosure will be listed, each of the ways we are permitted to use or disclose information will fall into one of the following categories.

Your Authorization. Except as outlined below, we will not use or disclose your personal health information for any purpose unless you have signed a form authorizing the use or disclosure. This form will describe what information will be disclosed, to whom, for what purpose, and when. You have the right to revoke that authorization in writing, except to the extent we have already relied upon it.

Uses and Disclosures for Treatment. We will make uses and disclosures of your personal health information as necessary for your treatment. For instance, doctors, nurses, and other professionals involved in your care will use information in your medical record to plan a course of treatment for you that may include procedures, medications, tests, etc. We may also disclose your personal health information to institutions and individuals outside our office that are or will be providing treatment to you.

Uses and Disclosures for Payment. We will make uses and disclosures of your personal health information as necessary for payment purposes. For instance, we may forward information regarding your medical procedures and treatment to your insurance company to arrange payment for the services provided to you or we may use your information to prepare a bill to send to you or the person responsible for your payment.

Uses and Disclosures for Health Care Operations. We will use and disclose your personal health information as necessary, and as permitted by law, for health care operations. This is necessary to administer the practice and to ensure that our patients receive high quality care and that our health care professionals provide the highest care. For example, we may use your personal health information in order to conduct an evaluation of the treatment and services we provide, or to review the performance of our staff. And, for education and training purposes, your health information may also be disclosed to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, residents, fellows and others.

Persons Involved In Your Care. Unless you object, we may in our professional judgment disclose to a member of your family, a close friend, or any other person you identify, your personal health information to facilitate that person's involvement in caring for you or in payment for that care. We may use or disclose personal health information to assist in notifying a family member, personal representative or any other person that is responsible for your care of your location and general condition. We may also disclose limited personal health information to a public or private entity that is authorized to assist in disaster relief efforts in order for that entity to locate a family member or other persons that may be involved in some aspect of caring for you.

Appointments and Services. We may use your personal health information to remind you about appointments or to follow up on your visit.

Health Products and Services. We may from time to time use your personal health information to communicate with you about treatment alternatives and other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Research. We may use and disclose your personal health information as permitted by law for research, subject to your explicit authorization. In all cases where your specific authorization has not been obtained, your privacy will be protected by confidentiality requirements evaluated by an oversight committee called an Investigational Review Board. For example, the IRB may approve the use of your health information with only limited identifying information to conduct outcomes research to see if a particular procedure is effective.

Business Associates. Certain aspects and components of our services are performed through contracts with outside persons or organizations, such as auditing, accreditation, legal services, etc. At times it may be necessary for us to provide certain of your personal health information to one or more of these outside persons or organizations who assist us with our payment/billing activities and health care operations. In such cases, we require these business associates to appropriately safeguard the privacy of your information.

Other Uses and Disclosures. We are permitted or required by law to make certain other uses and disclosures of your personal health information without your consent or authorization.

Subject to conditions specified by law:

- We may release your personal health information for any purpose required by law;
- We may release your personal health information for public health activities, such as required reporting of disease, injury, and birth and death, and for required public health investigations;
- We may release your personal health information to certain governmental agencies if we suspect child abuse or neglect; we may also release your personal health information to certain governmental agencies if we believe you to be a victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence;
- We may release your personal health information to entities regulated by the Food and Drug Administration if necessary to report adverse events, product defects, or to participate in product recalls;
- We may release your personal health information to your employer when we have provided health care to you at the request of your employer for purposes related to occupational health and safety; in most cases you will receive notice that information is disclosed to your employer;
- We may release your personal health information if required by law to government oversight agency conducting audits, investigations, inspections and related oversight functions;

- We may use or disclose your personal health information in emergency circumstances, such as to prevent a serious or imminent threat to a person or the public;
- We may release your personal health information if required to do so by a court or administrative order, subpoena or discovery request; in most cases you will have a notice of such release;
- We may release your personal health information to law enforcement officials to identify or locate suspects, fugitives or witnesses, or victims of crime, or for other allowable law enforcement purposes;
- We may release your personal health information to coroners, medical examiners, and/or funeral directors;
- We may release your personal health information if necessary to arrange an organ or tissue donation from you or a transplant for you;
- We may release your personal health information if you are a member of the military for activities set out by certain military command authorities as required by armed forces services; we may also release your personal health information if necessary for national security, intelligence, or protective services activities; and
- We may release your personal health information if necessary for purposes related to your workers' compensation benefits.

Confidentiality of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Patient Records, HIV-Related Information and Mental Health Records. The confidentiality of alcohol and drug abuse patient records, HIV-related information, and mental health records maintained by us is specifically protected by state and/or Federal law and regulations. Generally, we may not disclose such information unless you consent in writing, the disclosure is allowed by a court order, or in limited and regulated other circumstances.

RIGHTS THAT YOU HAVE

Access to Your Personal Health Information. Generally, you have the right to access, inspect, and/or copy personal health information that we maintain about you. Requests for access must be made in writing and be signed by you or your representative. We will charge you for a copy of your medical records in accordance with a schedule of fees established by applicable state law. You may also obtain an access request form from our office.

Amendments to Your Personal Health Information. You have the right to request that personal health information that we maintain about you be amended or corrected. We are not obligated to make all requested amendments but will give each request careful consideration. All amendment requests, in order to be considered by us, must be in writing, signed by you or your representative, and must state the reasons for the amendment/correction request. If an amendment or correction you request is made by us, we may also notify others who work with us and have copies of the uncorrected record if we believe that such notification is necessary. Please note that even if we accept your request, we may not delete any information already documented in your medical record. You may obtain an amendment request form from the doctor's office or Medical Records department of the hospital you visited.

Accounting for Disclosures of Your Personal Health Information. You have the right to receive an accounting of certain disclosures made by us of your personal health information except for disclosures made for purposes of treatment, payment, and healthcare operations or for certain other limited exceptions. This accounting will include only those disclosures made in the five years prior to the date on which the accounting is requested but, in no event will include disclosures made prior to April 13, 2003. Request must be made in writing and signed by you or your representative. Accounting request forms are available from our office. The first accounting in any 12-month period is free; you will be charged a fee of $20 for each subsequent accounting you request within a 12-month period.

Restrictions on Use and Disclosure of Your Personal Health Information. You have the right to request restrictions on certain of our uses and disclosures of your personal health information for treatment, payment, or health care operations. For example, you may request that we do not share your health information with a certain family member. Such restriction request should be made in writing and submitted to our office, Practice Administrator, Internal Medicine Specialists of Atlanta, P.C., 1800 Howell Mill Rd., Suite 175, Atlanta, GA, 30318.

Confidential Communication. You have the right to request communications regarding your personal health information from us by alternative means or at alternative locations and we will accommodate reasonable request by you. You must request such confidential communication in writing to each department to which you would like the request to apply.

Paper Copy of Notice. As a patient you retain the right to obtain a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Policies.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Complaints. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint in writing with our office. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in Washington D.C. All complaints must be made in writing and in no way will affect the quality of care you receive from us.

For Further Information. If you have questions or need further assistance regarding this Notice of Privacy Practices, you may contact us in writing Internal Medicine Specialists of Atlanta, P.C., 1800 Howell Mill Rd., Suite 175, Atlanta, GA, 30318

Effective Date.

This Notice of Privacy Practices is effective November 1, 2011.

YOU WILL BE ASKED TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED OUR NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES.

November 2011

Internal Medicine Specialists of Atlanta, P.C.